This mission directive implements policy guidance in AFD 10-1, Mission Directives, AFI 10-101, Format and Content of Mission Directive, and AFI 38-101, Air Force Organization. The mission directive defines the mission, command, responsibilities, and organization of the Air Mobility Command (AMC) wings. It also applies to the Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve units, effective upon the date of unit activation.

SUMMARY OF REVISIONS

This document is substantially revised and must be completely reviewed.

1. Mission.

1.1. Airlift Wings: Transport and deliver forces and materiel through the air. Perform passenger and cargo movement; combat employment and resupply; aeromedical evacuation; and special operations support to achieve strategic-, operational-, and tactical-level objectives across the spectrum of conflict. Support validated customer requests for airlift from other Services, DoD agencies, the military forces of allied nations, and US government as well as non-governmental organizations in accordance with a Joint Chiefs of Staff priority system. Support expeditionary units with deployed forces involved in operations or exercises.

1.2. Air Refueling Wings: Refuel aircraft in flight, which extends presence, increases range, and allows air forces to bypass areas of potential problem. Performs OPLAN 8044 support; global attack support, air bridge support; deployment support; theater support to combat air forces; and special operations system to achieve strategic-, operational-, and tactical-level objectives across the spectrum of conflict. Augment core airlift assets and retain capability to perform an airlift role, under the dual role concept, of transporting a combination of passengers and cargo while performing air refueling. Support expeditionary units with deployed forces involved in operations or exercises.

1.3. Air Mobility Wings: Perform a combination of missions from both airlift and air refueling wings.

2. Command. AMC wings, 317th Airlift Group, 463d Airlift Group, and 19th Air Refueling Group (AMC's Independent Groups) are assigned to 18th Air Force, Scott AFB IL.

3. Responsibilities.

3.1. Wing leadership will address all non-warfighting (i.e., policy, organizing, training, and equipping) and appropriate support issues directly with the AMC staff for resolution. Wing CC and /or staff directors will keep the 18th Air Force leadership informed of those issues.

3.2. Wing staff leadership:

3.2.1. Base Museum (MU) (Dover AFB DE). Directs an approved museum. Provides professional advice to the commander on all matters relating to the museum.

3.2.2. Career Assistant Advisor (CCCA). Provides career information to assist base personnel in making well informed career decisions.

3.2.3. Chaplain (HC). Provides for worship and religious education. Performs pastoral care. Provides ministry of presence, rites, and sacraments. Provides professional advice and pastoral guidance to commanders in all matters pertaining to religious expression, religious conviction, the accommodation of practices arising from religious faith, ethical leadership and decision-making, and moral reasoning.

3.2.4. Command Post (CP). Operates a 24-hour operations and maintenance aircraft coordination center.

3.2.5. Comptroller Squadron/Flight (FM). Provides financial advice, analysis, and services including budget requirements, execution and analysis, cost and economic analysis, pay services, and accounting.

3.2.6. History (HO). Conducts the wing historical program to provide an objective, comprehensive, and unbiased history of the wing's activities, developments, problems, and accomplishments. Provides historical data for use as a management tool.

3.2.7. Judge Advocate (JA). Renders legal advice, including military justice, adverse administrative actions, and general civil law, to commanders and staff. Administers operational and mobility law program. Provides personal legal assistance to eligible personnel. Manages all claims and litigation for and against the government.

3.2.8. Manpower and Organization (MO). Provides manpower management support to include productivity, A-76 Cost Comparison, and the manpower portion of the Contingency Personnel Control System. Manages, updates, and executes the Base Manpower Data Systems, providing manpower documents. Administers the wing idea program. Note: MO will be realigned as a flight under the Mission Support Squadron beginning Jun 04.

3.2.9. Military Equal Opportunity (ME). Provides programs to promote diversity awareness, equal opportunity, and equal treatment. Conducts human relations education.

3.2.10. Protocol (CCP). Manages reception of military and civilian visitors and the commander's amenities program and contingency fund. Provides advice and instructions for change of command, retirement of senior officers, and presentation of decorations.

3.2.11. Public Affairs (PA). Advises commander and staff on issues affecting internal, media, and community relations. Conducts internal and external information programs to build and maintain support for the Air Force and mission capabilities through effective communication.

3.2.12. Safety (SE). Conducts weapon, flight, and ground safety programs.

3.2.13. Senior Enlisted Advisor (CCC). Keeps commander informed on matters affecting the welfare, morale, and effective utilization of assigned enlisted personnel.

3.2.14. Plans (XP). Develops all wing operational plans. Controls overall plan execution. Executive agent for wing Crisis Action Team. Develops and evaluates exercises.
