SUMMARY OF REVISIONS

This change updates the date of this supplement; the information remains the same. It verifies that the update to AFI 33-360, Volume 1 dated 6 May 2002 did not effect the content of this supplement.

1.13.1. The OPR must set up a pre-coordination conference with the Base Publications Manager to ensure procedures required by AFI 33-360, Volume 1 and this supplement are followed. This pre-coordination conference will also ensure that subordinate directives and supplements to existing Air Force level guidance are consistent with United States Air Force guidance and not less restrictive.

3.22. The OPR will coordinate with the OPR at higher headquarters (by phone, e-mail, or fax) and document on Air Force Form 673.

3.23.1.6. The Base Publications Manager will send one copy of supplements or separate publications to the OPR at the next higher headquarters.
