

SECRETARY OF THE AIR FORCE
WASHINGTON

DEC 20 2019

MEMORANDUM FOR ALMAJCOM-FOA-DRU/CC
DISTRIBUTION C

SUBJECT: Redesignation of Air Force Space Command to United States Space Force

By order of the Secretary of the Air Force, effective 20 December 2019, Air Force Space Command is hereby redesignated as the United States Space Force. Fourteenth Air Force (Air Forces Strategic) is hereby redesignated as Space Operations Command. The Air Force Element presented to the National Reconnaissance Office is hereby redesignated Space Force Element; all authorities in Air Force Instructions concerning Air Force Elements will also apply to Space Force Elements. Air Force Commercial Satellite Communications Office is hereby redesignated Space Force Commercial Satellite Communications Office. They retain all of their currently assigned units, other organizations, and personnel.

HQ United States Space Force will report the completed actions using RCS: HAF-HO(M)7401, Air Force Organization Status Change Report, and Status of Resources and Training System (SORTS) per the current instructions.

Effective 20 December 2019 all U.S. Air Force military personnel, pursuant to section 952(d) of the Fiscal Year 2020 National Defense Authorization Act, and all civilian personnel assigned to Air Force Space Command are now assigned to the U.S. Space Force by virtue of this redesignation action. All U.S. Air Force authorities and policies, to include the application of any provision of law, continue to apply to all military and civilian personnel assigned to the U.S. Space Force.
